Subd to the Dewan

The connected records have been called for but not yet received. In connection with an interpellation on the same subject - a detailed report has also been called for from the D2 Commr.

Though owing to pressure of inspection work in the District - I have not been able to visit Serripatan to conduct a detailed enquiry that the Amildar's action was somewhat high handed and he has certainly exhibited a want of tact in not having taken with him the Thammars. There is however a great deal of exaggeration in the statements of the petitioners.

A further note will

A set of rules for the custody

In this connection it seems to be difficult to apportion the blame between the District Officers and the Muzrai Settlement, including in the latter the Muzrai Settlement Office which came into existence later.

it does not appear to me that any further action is called for on this point.

As regards the conduct of the Warden in question, it forms the subject matter of another file, which is under active consideration at present.
It has been referred this day to the Messrs. Scott

I do not think it will serve any useful purpose to dwell upon it, any further.
To my mind it will be so much to ask of paper, pen & ink. Both the Museum & the Dept of have center interest towards the delay & the officers have been many in both. Some of them have retired from service since & a few of them are presumably not in the land of the living also.
So it seems best to let it drop at this stage.

I have in consequence been able to take up the systematic inspection and investigation into the affairs of the more important institutions, though even so owing to the time limit fixed by God: for placing the working of these and the instructions on a paper basis, I have had to confine my attention to the more urgent concerns relating to them. No work of investigation into their resources and requirements have been very heavy, but since this work is completed the other concerns relating to them, can be looked into

Subject:--

The preparation and consecration of the Ranganudi crown and the festival for the celebration of its presentation to Sri Ranganathaswamy at Seringapatam.

Deputy Commissioner's yadast
No.Ref.C.639 of 1917-18 dated 27th June 1918.

The connected records have been received since and a report on the subject has also been received from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore, in reference to an interpellation asked in the Legislative Council.

Rubkari No.211 dated 3rd Aug.1895.
Yadi No.343 dated 15th Sept. 1895.
Rubkari No.600 dated 16th Nov.1895.
" " 767 " 21st Jan.1896.

2. The question of making an Utsava Kirita for the use of Sri Ranganathaswamy was mooted in September 1894 and sanction was accorded for an estimate of Rs.273-3-0 vide Government Order No.407-8 dated 2nd November 1894. As the work proceeded, further estimates were sanctioned from time to time and permission was granted to utilize the precious stones of some of the old jewels belonging to the temple. Thus by the 11th October 1897 a sum of Rs.575-11-0 had been sanctioned, but the crown was still incomplete and in the possession of Dharmadarsi Venkatachari. The latter applied for more funds to buy rubies and gold and a sum of Rs.125 - was sanctioned to purchase rubies, but an account was called for before according sanction to purchase gold. This account does not appear to have been submitted and as in the meanwhile the town was infected with plague, orders were issued to take the jewel from the possession of Dharmadarsi Venkatachar and place it in Treasury custody. In pursuance of this order, the unfinished jewel and loose stones were taken charge of and nothing further seems to have been done as Dharmadarsi Venkatachar and Archak Kesava Ranga Bhatta who interested themselves in the work died of plague soon after. The matter appears to have been brought to the notice of the Amildar Mr. Hanumanta Rao on his taking charge of the Taluk and at the desire of the devotees, he seems to have decided to have the work finished under the supervision of himself, the expenses being met by public subscription.

3. Seeing that the work had been in abeyance for more than 18 years, it would have been well if the Amildar had sought for permission to recommence the work, as that would have secured a proper examination of the unfinished jewel by his superior officers. This would have been a prudential course but he was acting against standing orders in not having taken permission before collecting subscription and in not associating with himself either the Dharmadarsis or an independent committee of devotees. The Deputy Commissioner of Mysore considers that Mr. Hanumanta Rao deserves censure for this irregularity and adds that he has since been reverted to his permanent appointment in connection with certain other irregularities.

4. An account of receipts and expenditure was maintained by the Amildar and the total amount collected was Rs.1341-4-7 and that spent Rs.1132-14-0, the balance being deposited in Savings Bank No.1200 in the name of the Amildar. Lists of precious stones used for the crown and lying loose have also been kept and there is so far nothing to show that there has been any misappropriation.

5. As regards the allegations of high handedness and breach of Shastras, the version is highly exaggerated. There seems to have been a genuine and widespread feeling among the devotee public that the jewel should be presented to the deity in due form even in its unfinished state and the attendance at the festival seems to have been unusually large. The indiscretion of the Amildar appears to lie in his not having consulted the Dharmadarsis previously and secured their collaboration. So far as I can make out there is no breach of Shastric rules, as the purification and consecration ceremony which is after all a simple matter, was gone through in proper form as will be seen from the report of the office Agamiks and there is absolutely nothing to prohibit an unfinished jewel from being worn by the deity provided a proper shape is given to it. In this instance, the jewel though requiring some finishing work is said to be presentable and is calculated to add to the prestige of the temple. There is nothing to prevent the jewel being handed over to workmen for the finishing work and the jewel being repurified before being worn by the deity.

Sir - The Press Act now in force compels to submit the enclosed to the notice of the Govt and to obtain their sanction before it appears in any of the local papers. I have done in obedience of the order of the Act. Please to order and permit either to publication of the papers or as a separate pamphlet for the information of the general public.

In my present situation I am not doing any injustice to sound the feeling of the political world. This is purely a question of religion and pertaining to Agamastras. Half moon and not be made use of to the Lord. If so it would have been long ago made use of by the persons who attempted for it.

Mr Hanumanth Rao is a person of military nature and has far from civil & judicial disposition. He is a man of persistent nature and the lover of Nizam administration. The present Dewan is dead against the Nizam administration.

were the general public,

This is purely a religious question. The Lord Ranganatha of Srangapatnam contains devotees in Srangapatnam, Kanchi, Kumbhak etc. - If the hypocrites keep quiet - they may raise objections.

The Govt may send for all the records in custody of the sub-offices about the Ranganatha affairs since and the kind personal yet will give to enlightenment.
The archak, who is at the bottom of this knows nothing in the sastra and his decision is impractical. The Agama Parikshak of the Govt was visited 18th on Kariyatu Hill till 7 and returned to Srangapatnam at 7.30 -

The word, a question was in the date custody till, anticipating a final act of the authority - to celebrate the word procession - In the absence of order, the Amil has presumed that he should be sent and celebrated the word in the dead of night - from 10 P.M. to 3 A.M. abusing the power of the magistrate & that again of the mob who protested not to a celebration without finishing the work of the word & necessary Samprokama bit - I beg to be
